

BLUE MONKEY

Wavespell:

Blue Monkey represents the Divine Child, the child that is ever in a state of open-hearted wisdom, innocence, trust, simplicity and joyful wonder. What would it feel like to actually BE a magical child in this culture and time? The secret that very few know - because they may feel more comfortable trying to protect themselves - is that the divine child offers the strongest of all protections, the invulnerability of openhearted Love. Through innocence, a kind of immunity is created that allows the divine child to be TRANSPARENT so that the apparent 'slings and arrows' of the world can pass right through without being personalized into wounds, reactions or hurt feelings. This is the path of innocence regained. Transparency is the path of the new consciousness.

Blue Monkey is antipodal, opposite, to Red Dragon. Red Dragon honors the most serious spot of our creation, the dark and wet succor of our mother's womb. This consequential passage seals our connection to all life by threading us to another, to the biological vessel of our mothers on earth as well as the immutable grander dependence we hold for a divine sheltering in the heart of the Universal Sourceless. Thinking of monkeys in their junglescape, it's not all playtime, as there are long passages of crooning in familial love, grooming and embracing, making faces and chatter to each other. Red Dragon is the heart behind pure play, unsullied by bitterness, aggression. Blue Monkey needs the opposite energy of maternal care, the nurturing breast and belly centers, to balance its child nature, and to drop into the umbilicus of reconnection after much time swinging freely through open air. Red Dragon, in turn, needs Blue Monkey to infuse all that time in the red blooded womb with sky blue free play, unfurling limbs that were tightly fetal to outreach towards all elements of life outside a mother's grasp. Exhilaration and independence are fueled by Blue Monkey's daring and vitality, then it drops back into tribe, into community, the circle of an ongoing relationship to Mother Earth.

Blue Monkey is analogous, supported by Yellow Star. The active imagination and deep inner visioning of Blue Monkey creates some of the most spectacular, sky-infused art of our existence. Blue Monkey people are born musicians, artists, artisans. They are crafty and agile with their hands and choose embodied art forms where their mental acuity is released into expressions of their whole physicality. Yellow Star includes art, adornment, elegance and beauty, so Blue Monkey is supported by such surroundings – the attention to décor, jewelry, costume. Yellow Star is also the specific of the night sky aglow with those sparks that settle into the monkey mind for new imaginings, new dreams. Blue Monkey, as the trickster shaman, needs the constellations of star clusters to infuse the dark energies it encounters with those bright seeds of light.

Blue Monkey has a mystical, occult relationship to White Dog. White Dog is the mammalian seed of Blue Monkey. Just as a human is an evolution beyond primate, the four-legged dog is its predecessor. Blue Monkey finds much etheric support from returning to its roots in the loving heart and loyalty of the White Dog nature. It's the grounding and connection to earth and our earth family, to community and commitment to offspring. This is a change up from unbridled free time, independence. White Dog brings Blue Monkey into the heart center, but through the force of lust, love, and hunger for procreation. It's the infusion of our child nature with first attraction, adding partnership to our playtime. Blue Monkey's lifetime is always charmed by falling in love, grappling with the entrances and exits of different personalities that coexist with an ever-present desire to (pri)mate.

Blue Monkey's action – its direction in life – is to play. In English, we balance many activities around that verb. We play games, play roles, play instruments. Our playfulness represents skill as much as free time and merriment. We find delight – are of light – when we direct ourselves to games of learning and chance. There is no laziness or wasted time here unless our ego applies judgment that sheer, laboring accomplishment is the better use of our awakened days. Blue Monkey knows a deeper truth, that much can be manifested – handled and made with our hands – if our minds are light, infused with imagination. So we commit in Blue Monkey lifetimes to dexterous fingers, a lot of physical expression – dancing, athleticism, tree climbing and sexuality – and a bright, active process of thinking it through. In play, we jest, we produce entertainment, we stop the workday and try other exertions. Whatever irresponsibility ensues is possibly a barricade to true creation, rather than a means to it, so trust the joyful avenues and child's instinct for art and beauty that Blue Monkey brings.

Blue Monkey's power – its offering to strengthen us in turn – is magic. While a primate in Africa may or may not be a factual magician, the reiteration for the Blue Monkey tribe is that before we were human – conditioned to be rational, logical and guarded against wildly free imagination – we were drawn toward the elements of earth, fire, air and water with no picture of harnessing their energies for industry. Magic is the unkempt freedom of the natural world, and when we are in our Blue Monkey nature we are primally attuned to be as liberated. In this state of grace, synchronicity and enchantment is sparked. The dance from tree to tree allows much greater visioning than standing earthbound, so we see the creation of the Universal Sources in every flare of color – bird's wing and flower bloom – and in the singsong of wind, downpour and animal call. When standing in a Blue Monkey incarnation, we are masters of magic – can draw down spiritual teaching through the images of our bright minds, and impart it to others visually, through art, music and strongest visual story. Our gift and intent is to fill others with the awe we are given through our open channels to Creator and its colorful designs for our growth.

Blue Monkey has the essence of illusion, and is the shadow dance of a monkey mind. With so much mental activity – in-flow of spiritual awakening, extreme imagining – many thought forms and insights will spin not into actualization but oblivion. As a monkey jumps from tree to tree and switches perspective routinely, plans and picture of the right next step also change up and not all are manifested. Illusion is not a lie or deception, but a flare of light. Sometimes that spark feeds the flame of a creation, and sometimes like a falling star it is quickly extinguished. Whether it comes into 'reality' or remains surreal, the illusion of the Blue Monkey allows us all to develop our imagination and dreaming alongside their ever-bursting picture of what could be. They lead us, circling our slower pace many times as we step more doggedly through our earth walk, with visions of potential outcomes. Blue Monkey needs cohorts on the path of creation, and can feel the pain of our slower species not jumping alongside its dance through shadows and light. Still, the mind will come up with new solutions and invitations and find partners for the trust that as with the Sanskrit teaching of maya, all is illusion, undeniably transitory and light, in this life.
