

RED SKYWALKER

Wavespell:

Red Skywalker is the skywalker, the time/space traveler who can jump dimensions to assist you in realizing heaven on Earth. Red Skywalker is unlimited in form but often chooses the form of a messenger.

Red Skywalker represents balance in life - not static balance, but a dynamic equilibrium that includes both your present expression and your starseeded self. You are the one whose expression of the light assists in drawing the pillars of heaven to Earth. As this reality is lived, it touches and awakens the same truth in others.

Red Skywalker's action – its direction in life – is to explore. The word origin of explore is to 'cry out' – while to implore is the cry or weeping inward. Red Skywalker is an extroverted, non-emotional state, taking any discomfort and moving it into an open space in the cosmos where answers can come; remember the many ears of a full stalk of corn. There is very little compost decay in a corn plant – the dry husks make dolls and the cobs can feed livestock or burn. So within a Red Skywalker person the melancholy of dark moods, downward spirals, don't exist. All moves upward or otherwise evaporates. The cry, though, is loud, intentional, a prophet's call for heavenly action and information. Red Skywalker certainly explores space in dreamtime journeying and daytime reverie, but the intention is not to conquer or bring back material souvenirs – altered consciousness that can be imparted to the earth inhabitants below is their only design.

Red Skywalker's power – its offering to strengthen us in turn – is space. Again, how resilient Red Skywalker is to be a vertical column of transmitted prophecy with a cut out gap between earth and sky. That dodging of superficial life – the bustle of human activity on the earth's crust – is their autonomy. Never really engaged with the goings on laterally – neighbors, family of origin, school teachers and classmates – they look to the sky and see its open emptiness, its space. This returns us to the partnership, though, wed into the glyph picture of a pair of prophets, channels. A Red Skywalker doesn't explore space alone, doesn't allow space that denies intimacy. They work in tandem with other seekers, other spacemen and women. Like corn never grows alone.

Red Skywalker has the essence of wakefulness. Corn itself is called a 'long-night' plant, meaning it grows best when germinated while days are still short, nights long. The 260-day harvest cycle is like nine months, indicating a certain start in the days coming out of darker winter solstice. When we enter Red Skywalker time or incarnate as Red Skywalker beings, we know darkness without fear: it's the delightful entrance to the dreamtime and liberation from realism. As the days get longer, we refuse to reenter linear rationality, so that we daydream, remain mystical even when awake. And in the high productivity of growing towards the sky, relentlessly and fearlessly upward, we don't flit into the torpor of being unconscious, deadened, dull. We are bright like the sun itself, and seeking, listening, wakeful.

Red Skywalker is antipodal, opposite, to Blue Night. Red Skywalker is the daydream, Blue Night the one while we sleep. In Blue Night, we safe-house our body in a shelter and let the soul enter the sky; in Red Skywalker, we are more fearless and leave our body vertical and awake while we drift off into more spacey realms. This is simply because there are fewer predators in the day; in the nocturnal dark we are vulnerable to their night vision. So we can be in the dreamtime, in daytime, without fear. More than many antipodal pairings, Red Skywalker and Blue Night have perfect symmetry. Together they form an incessant dream, a constant alignment with infinite consciousness.

Red Skywalker is analogous, supported by White Worldbridger. White Worldbridger is the moment of death, crossing over, and an emblem of the finality of the corporal life as well as the eternity of soul existence. A Red Skywalker crosses this portal in a day's journey, home again in time for dinner. The knowledge that another world exists besides this oxygenated one is integral to Red Skywalker's daring. Their willingness to experiment in other consciousness is based on watching the rites of death, and trying, actually, to access the afterlife while still embodied here. A shamanic death, where an initiate is pushed into their fear thresholds, or transcended in an altered state that reveals heavenly bodies, is part of Red Skywalker ritual. Red Skywalker in turn makes death less terrifying, is an exploration of the cosmic peace of an outer world, a preview of our aftermath that shows nothing to resist or fear.

Red Skywalker has a mystical, occult relationship to Yellow Star. Of course Red Skywalker is called skyward by points of light, rather than the inky black around them. Their mystery is in the light source, the scattered designs a spider's web of divine creation. Red Skywalker people are looking to the cosmos for a spectral beauty they can't find in our surface world, and so the stars make more sense than many people or patterns of the civilization around them. Yellow Star is in turn enlivened by Red Skywalker – a visitor from afar who dares to rise against gravity's bounds. It's like being a deity who receives a disciple: touching, pleasing, and tales to tell from their travels. A star is sedentary, a cornstalk ever-reaching. For Yellow Star, Red Skywalker time and people bring fresh insight from the open ascent; in turn, Yellow Star delivers the prophecy of its sky tribe.
