

PLANETARY ORBIT

Each galactic signature of your Cosmic Identity is defined by a five-part structure called the Destiny Oracle. On the graphic below, each five-part cross is a Destiny Oracle. To find your oracle, locate the cross which has your Solar Seal in the center. For example if you are a Red Dragon, find the cross with the Red Dragon solar seal in the center.

The purpose of a planet is to hold its orbit in relation to the other planetary orbits and altogether in relation to the Sun or stellar unit of the evolving star system. The frequencies of the planets in relationship to each other account for the creation of different stages or aspects of consciousness.

Each galactic signature is defined by a five-part structure called the Destiny Oracle and is found on the Oracle Board. To find your oracle, locate the cross which has your Solar Seal in the center. For example if you are a Red Dragon, find the cross with the Yellow Warrior solar seal in the center.

Then use the chart below to find your guide Solar Seal (the blank square at the top of the five-part cross). The graphic below describes the powers of the individual pieces of the oracle. In this system the five fold energetic weaving defines a galactic signature or code. Referred to as an Oracle, it is a way explore your personal galactic signature and the energies of any date.

Your Dreamspell Galactic Signature (Solar Seal + Tone) is coded by your month, day, and year of birth. This would appear at the center and is marked Destiny on the diagram. that is further below, Directly below is an example of what your Galactic Signature might look like when combining the Solar Seal + Tone. I'll use Blue Crystal (12) Eagle as an example .

Then use the chart to find your guide Solar Seal (the blank square at the top of the five-part cross). The graphic below also describes the powers of the individual pieces of the oracle.
