

This be the destiny upon which this Earth doth lie.

Behold the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great seas. Four beasts came up from the sea, different, one from another. There beheld a nation that arose as the visage of a man to encounter the beasts. This visage's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

This prophecy was written 6000 years before the appearance of Jesus. The prophecy foretells the ultimate destiny of the earth and the final four kingdoms rising out of the sea that would be different from each other prior to the return of the Khristos. The four winds of heaven are describing spiritual forces that influence geo-political events among the nations. Each "wind" has influence over specific geographic regions and significantly affect the World Timelines. The winds of heaven influence England in the Northwest, Russia in the Northeast, and Central Asia from Iran to India in the Southeast. Today the Southwest wind is blowing upon the Middle East and northern Africa. The great seas did not refer to waterbodies upon Earth, but rather the sea of nations that would come and go. The power of nations rising and falling.

The first beast was that of a lion, and had eagle's wings; it was beheld by all till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

To better comprehend this prophecy, we must first understand that many countries on the earth are represented by an animal as a symbol of their statehood. For example, the U.S. is known to be represented as an eagle. The barbary lion is the symbolic animal of Great Britain. Great Britain was once the major world power, having power over one fifth of the world's population. The prophecy identifies this country as a lion with eagle's wings. The lion was thought to be the animal that best personified the qualities of strength, courage, dignity, pride etc. However, the wings were "plucked" and then the country with wings like an eagle stood on its own. In 1776 the U.S. declared their independence from Great Britain and have stood upon their feet as a man or rather a nation ever since.

Behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

Russia represented by the symbol of the bear, rises to be a nation of power. The bear represents the withering away of the state by establishing a socioeconomic order structured upon the ideas of common ownership of the means of production and the absence of social classes, money, and the state over many parts of the world (like China). The bear as its symbol, describes an animal that has killed many tens of millions of people with its ideology and power. The Russian bear is raised up along its southwestern border in order to bring back under its authority and ultimately into the fold of a revived World Empire the following countries: Georgia, Armenia, and Azerbaijan all north of the Caucasus Mountains; along with Belarus, Ukraine, and Moldova all west of the Ural Mountains. It's important to remember that the Roman Empire originally extended into Russia that it reached as far as the western slopes of the Ural Mountains. In 2008 Russia tested its ability to take back the former Soviet territory of Georgia. Remember the four winds of heaven are blowing to consolidate regional powers. The goal is to reconstitute an ancient World Empire. The prophecy laid out that Russia would overtake nations that once belonged to the Roman Empire.

All of the previously listed nations were part of the ancient Roman Empire, and are all situated along Russia's southwestern border.

Behold another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it, four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

Most experts believed Germany was the leopard. Germany views the leopard as their national symbol, however in reality it is shown as a two headed black eagle. If we review history, we could say that the Third Reich was under Hitler. History tells us there was also a First Reich and a Second Reich. The First Reich was the Holy Roman Empire made up of a multi-ethnic complex of territories in Western, Central and Southern Europe that developed during the Early Middle Ages and continued until its dissolution in 1806 during the Napoleonic Wars. The Second Reich was the German Empire or the Imperial State of Germany, also referred to as Imperial Germany, or the Kaiserreich (the Second Reich), as well as simply Germany, was the period of the German Reich from the unification of Germany in 1871 until the November Revolution in 1918, when the German Reich changed its form of government from a monarchy to a republic. Obviously, the Fourth Reich will be in existence during the Last Days. The Fourth Reich is the prophesized Nazi Reich that is the successor to Adolf Hitler's Third Reich. The term has been used to refer to possible resurgence of Nazi ideas, as well pejoratively of political opponents. Throughout Germany's history they have upheld very anti-Jewish ideologies and are accredited with starting both World War I and World War II. It should not be surprising that Germany is listed with Russia and Great Britain (British Commonwealth) as ruling a large part of the world in the Last Days of the prophecy.

Then what are the four heads on the leopard? We must remember that we are talking about four heads that refers to nations. Having said that, let's look at this from another angle....a confederacy of four nations: Pakistan, India, Afghanistan, and Turkmenistan (the leopard has four heads). There are several reasons for doing this, not the least of which is that Turkmenistan wants to build the world's largest natural gas pipeline to the Arabian Sea. The beginnings of this confederacy already exist. It is called TAPI (Turkmenistan, Afghanistan, Pakistan, and India). This confederacy centers around the Trans-Afghanistan Pipeline. Leopards are common throughout this region and these nations identify with leopards. When the prophecy was written, these nations belonged to a larger conglomerate of powerful nations. Over time, they have named mountain ranges and former leaders after them. More than likely, Iran, Iraq, and the Kurds will play a role in the creation of this Central Asian Union, since they belonged to the original nation. This beast has four wings, which probably refer to four adjunct or secondary nations. So this Union will consist of four primary nations along with four secondary nations. Note that Burma east of India seems to have captured the desire of world leaders.

History Lesson: Former Pakistani President Pervez Musharraf was served an arrest warrant for the 2007 Benazir Bhutto assassination. Miss Bhutto was a former two terms Prime Minister of Pakistan.

The assassination happened two weeks before the election in which she was the frontrunner. Musharraf fled Pakistan and was exile in London and Dubai. He was never tried. He is now back in Pakistan awaiting trial. Musharraf is the Pakistani front man for the formation of the Central Asian Union. Well former Pakistani President Pervez Musharraf has gleefully expressed his desire to have US President Barack Obama as his "Supreme Leader". It is interesting to note that the Pakistani leadership is in the market for a "Supreme Leader"; considering this is a newly created position. Note that the Central Asian confederacy is clearly and openly represented by a leopard. The formation of this "leopard" would be a confirmation of this interpretation, and a present time fulfillment of the prophecy.

Behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

One of the four beasts is diverse from the rest, and has ten kings without kingdoms. The beast-kingdom will not be supernaturally created, but comes to power in normal fashion. The beast-kingdom will, therefore, exist naturally for some time before gaining global power. The ten horns grow from the fourth-part beast. The ten horns do not make up this fourth-part beast, but belong to it. The horns each have a crown that symbolizes authority. They have no kingdoms, but they have great power. The beast-kingdom will be "dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth". China is represented by a dragon symbol and is one of the few global superpowers. Throughout history they practiced the buying of American politicians to set the stage for them to become the dominant world power. While the seven heads are nations, the ten horns are kings without nations. This is more in the line with leaders of vast armies, with a form of government, but rule no specific nation. They are also some type of globalist rulers- kings without borders. The anti-Khristos will somehow uproot three of the ten horns, and become stronger than any of the ten horns. This would make the Anti- Khristos a nation also.

One hundred eighty years ago Napoleon Bonapart said, "When China awakens, the world will tremble." In our lifetime, China has startled the world and frightened many in the military complex with its enormous economic and military potential. Analysts have recognized that China could very well threaten the entire world even more than the Soviet Union did just a decade ago. China already has the nuclear bomb and a delivery system that is the fear of every country in the Orient. China is trafficking in arms beyond belief by buying them from Russia and any of the former impoverished satellite countries that will sell them and turning around and selling what they do not want to any of their oil rich allies that can afford them, like Iran, Iraq, and India.

Their aggressive demand for Hong Kong, Taiwan and the Spratly Islands proves they have a strategy to control all of Asia. Whoever controls the Spratly's not only controls the oil check points to the oil-dependent countries of the East like Japan, Taiwan, the Philippines, but also Australia, Indonesia and Singapore. Basing their claims to these almost uninhabitable islands to centuries old documents, they are probably more interested in the suspected rich oil fields under them than their location. They know that no country can prosper today or in the foreseeable future without oil.

But it is not just the Orient they are interested in. In 1997 they negotiated an incredible coup in the Americas. First it was disclosed they had leased an important pier in Long Beach, California, being vacated by the U.S. Navy for their government owned COSCO company to help speed their enormous imports into the United States. Our balance of payments with them already shows a deficit of $50 billion dollars and is expected to go as high as $70 or $100 billion, a tribute to the greed of American capitalist whose concern for profits exceeds their concern for the safety of our country. Another still amazing effort was their attempt to gain a foothold in the Panama Canal area when the U.S. withdraws from that region before the turn of the century. By long term leases at each end of the canal they could virtually control the shipping through the canal. Some military experts believe this could force the United States to have two separate Navy's, for no longer in emergencies could warships be sent to support our naval forces from one ocean to the other without China's permission. This shows the long-range goals of the Chinese Communist government.

China is not controlled by democracy loving liberals like most countries in the world. Their leaders are among the most dedicated communists in the world. They are not "agrarian reformers" or "progressives" as our liberal media tries to represent them. They are a ruthless group of elites who have stolen the opportunity for freedom from the 12 billion freedom loving Chinese people and have never wavered in their plan to use China as a military platform from which to conquer the world. It is obvious that the obsession of America's leadership to appease these ruthless communist leaders will strengthen their position and weaken ours.

Appeasement seems to be the watchword of the present leadership in our country – which is why the World Bank, which is controlled and financed by the American Taxpayer, has financed the Chinese economy until all experts expect it to challenge our own economy for world markets. In 1995, the Chinese government bragged about the fact that they had obtained the highest loans from the World Bank of any country on earth. Twenty-two billion dollars! For several years they allowed American companies to buy twenty-five percent of corresponding companies in China (to gain capitol). If you were to drive through Beijing you would no doubt be dumbfounded to see the names of countless American companies that have affiliates in China. This of course has contributed to our enormous trade deficit that has provided Chinas untold billions to support their socialistic economy.

Furthermore, China is playing a more active role in the United Nations (UN) and taking leadership roles in specialized agencies. Currently, four of the 15 UN specialized agencies are headed by Chinese nationals, including the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDP), and the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO). And with its contribution rising to 12 percent of the UN regular budget, passing Japan at 8.5 percent, China is currently the second-largest monetary contributor to the UN.

The ancient texts include more than just China, for the term "kings of the east" which is really interpreted as "kings of the rising sun" which would include Japan and other Asian countries. The term, "rising sun" is a synonym for east because this is where the "land of Sinim" is located. These "Sinites" along with other people settled in the east in what we know today as China, after they were scattered from the Tower of Babel, and became isolated from the rest of the world. When the prophecy was foretold, Korea was a perfunctory client kingdom of China. Towards the end of the 19th century, influence over Korea was increasingly an area of conflict between China and Japan.

From the Chinese prophecy we have the following: When the Empire of the Beast and the Magog (Russian) alliance fully engage in war in the Middle East, the great Chinese and their other nations to the east will not remain on the sidelines, they will control what is left of the world along with most of its vital resources. Thus, as the war between the West and Russia rages, and the fires of nuclear destruction begin to rain down on their armies and cities, China and their nations of the Far East will begin to move toward Israel. Their prophecy says that they will actually be drawn through the release of evil angels at the sounding of the Sixth Trumpet, who will go throughout the Earth inciting violence and war. The chaos of the Great Tribulation will swirl every nation up to an intense frenzy of battle, which will cause the mobilization of forces far beyond any army assembled in history.

There came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

A small group of super rich have been buying virtually everything on earth. From media, health care, travel, food industry, governments... That allows them to influence and control the whole world. These global elites are part of an elite club called the World Economic Forum and founders of the Great Reset. Every year 2600 private jets fly into Davos Switzerland for their meetings. But they are in year round communications coordinating their global agendas. Bill Gates, Klaus Schwab, George Soros, Justin Trudeau, Boris Johnson ... The list is very long and they are all very rich and want to tell you how to live.

The Bilderberg meeting is an annual conference established in 1954 to foster dialogue between the Elite of Europe and North America. The group's agenda is to bolster a consensus around free market capitalism and its interests around the globe. Participants include political leaders, experts from industry, finance, academia, and the media, numbering between 120 and 150. Attendees are entitled to use information gained at meetings, but not attribute it to a named speaker. This is to encourage candid debate, while maintaining privacy.
